

Creative Sustainability Worksheet

What department in your state or county handles these funds from the federal government? What is their contact information? How can you make a connection with them?

- Temporary Aid to Needy Families (TANF)
- Personal Responsibility Education Program (PREP) (Did your state accept these funds?)
- Title V (Sexual Risk Avoidance) (Did your state accept these funds?)
- Rape Prevention Education (RPE)
- Home Visiting
- Juvenile Re-Entry
- Child Support

Does your state have a child sex abuse prevention law (aka Erin's Law)? What are its requirements? (This is typically handled in the Department of Education.)

Does your state have Social and Emotional Learning Standards for schools? What are they?

Does your state give grants for pregnancy prevention from state funds? What department does that?

Does your state/district have programs or schools specifically for expecting and parenting youth? Who is the contact?

Do you have a relationship with your local juvenile probation or corrections department? Can you make a connection?